

Elopement Package

Sugarloaf's elopement package was created for brides and grooms who wish to celebrate their special day with their closest friends and family. The wedding ceremony will exclusively take place on The Beach at 4:00 PM (if available) which would include; Sugarloaf's white folding garden chairs, usage of the Sugarloaf Sound System, and a ceremony coordinator. After the ceremony, the newlyweds have a chance to take pictures on The Beach while guests make their way to Sugarloaf Mountain Resort's signature restaurant, 45 North. Guests of the wedding will have a section of tables exclusively reserved in the back area of the dining room of 45 North with a complimentary champagne toast awaiting their arrival.

Sugarloaf's elopement package is created for celebrations of ten to twenty-five guests. Elopement ceremonies are set at a flat base rate (determined by your wedding coordinator) with dinner service at Sugarloaf's signature restaurant, 45 North, priced additionally per entrée (subject to additional fees of taxes and gratuity). Guest counts and final orders of entrees must be pre-determined ten days prior to arrival with place cards (with meal choices indicated on the cards) supplied by the bridal party. Appetizers and beverages can be added in at an additional charge (subject to additional fees of taxes and gratuity).

Other locations may be available only if the Beach is previously reserved. Other locations may not include all features of the elopement package.
Dinner services are required with the Sugarloaf elopement package.
Officiant is not provided.*
